Didn't I say just like it was with Ho-Chi-Minh
It makes no sense at all to just go steaming in
That's what I said
Didn't I know what a baby could have known
Didn't I tell you it would make a grown man grow
Cry and pain
Didn't I say x4
Didn't I tell you everything that's on my mind
Still I wait for you to reply in kind
Well that's just fine
Didn't I say x4
Didn't I hit nails on the head
Put all the FACS to bed
Got a light bulb forehead
And you're going to see me glowing in a world
Didn't I say you start messing me around
To counterbalance any happiness I found
Along the way
Didn't I say x8
