Oh eugene, you're just killing me
The words go deep to the heart of me
In being things i don't wanna be
Your dark side gets to get grip on me
How can you be so beautifully insane, eugene
And be so completely free of pain, eugene
How can you fly so close to the flame, eugene
And never feel the slightest pain
Barefoot in the muddy rain
So beautifully insane
Feelings cast in the ring of steel
In any case i don't wanna feel
My heart is cold and my brain is numb
My heaven's fake and the devil's more fun
How can you be so beautifully insane, eugene
And be so completely free of pain, eugene
How can you fly so close to the flame, eugene
And never feel the slightest pain
Barefoot in the muddy rain
So beautifully insane
Eugene.. Eugene..
Barefoot in the muddy rain
So beautifully insane
Eugene.. Eugene..
