This time around i wanna stay despite the cold of yesterday
There's still an attraction in a way disaster backhands me the play
I pay the system like a slave
I'm sensing shutdown all the way
I feel the force of two extremes
And all the tension in between
I pay the system like a slave
I'm sensing shutdown all the way
I feel the force of two extremes
And all the tension in between Half in love and half in fear, in a circle through the years (?) Where it stopped of the age of god knows what
I pay the system like a slave
I'm sensing shutdown all the way
I feel the force of two extremes
And all the tension in between
I pay the system like a slave
I'm sensing shutdown all the way
I feel the force of two extremes
And all the tension in between
The winter sun that's never (?)
The silence of (?) Storm
I feel the force of two extremes
And all the tencion in between
I pay the system like a slave
I'm sensing shutdown all the way
I feel the force of two extremes
And all the tension in between
All the tention in between
