You're so sane
When i mistake my own stagnation for the world's again
Thanks to your imagination i transcend the pain
Cuz you're so sane
I'm so hung up on these concepts 'sacred' and
'profane'
For too many for my little brain to entertain
But you're so sane
I'm a stranger to the ways of (?) All the world
I have tried to get some focus but it's all a blur
But you're so sane
I'm a stranger to the ways of (?) All the world
I have tried to get some focus but it's all a blur
You're so sane
When i mistake my own stagnation for the world's
again
Thanks to your imagination i transcend the pain
Cuz you're so sane
I'm so (unpredictable).. I'm so (unpredictable).
