I wanna be that Guy who can say your mine when we're standing in the movie line
I want to pick you out of the crowd
Shout it out so loud So everyone hears me
And I would give you the world
But if you decide that's not what you like
If you want to keep this quiet
Then Babe

I'll be you secret
If you can keep it
And I'll be your friend
If you really need it
And I'll be the answer to your eyes
If you are willing to give me a try
(And I'll be your secret)

Sometimes I feel like tearing down these walls
That keep you strapped inside
I want to kick away any doubt show what I'm about
So they can't ignore me
And I will hold you tonight
no no no no no
That's not what they'd like
And they want to keep us quiet
Then babe

I'll be you secret
If you can keep it
And I'll be your friend
If you really need it
And I'll be the answer to your eyes
If you are willing to give me a try
(And I'll be your secret)

Don't let them tell you how to be Just open up your eyes and see
That you belong to me
Why should we care what people say
Why should we let them stand in our way

You don't have to be afraid

I'll be your secret
If you can keep it
And I'll be your friend
Just Tell me You Need it
And I'll be the answer to your eyes
If you are willing to give me a try
(And I'll be your secret) Yeah Yeah

I want to pick you out of the crowd
Shout it out so loud So everyone hears me
I wanna give you the world
I wanna give you the world Yeah Yeah
And let me be the answer to your eyes
Let me be your secret (I'll be your secret)
If Your Willing to give me a try

I wanna give you the world
I wanna give you the world
But if that's not what you like
(I'll be your secret)
If you can keep it
