Girl you'll never know no one like me
Up there in your high society
They might tell you I'm no good
Girl they need to understand
Just who I am

I may be a real bad boy
But baby I'm a real good man

I may drink too much and play too loud
Hang out with a ruff and roudy crowd
That don't mean I don't respect my momma or my Uncle Sam
Yes sir Yes mam

I may be a real bad boy
But baby I'm a real good man

I might have a reckless streak
At least a country mile wide
If you're gonna run with me
It's gonna be a wild ride
When it comes to loving you
I've got velvet hands

I'll show you how a real bad boy
Can be a real good man

I take all the good times I can get
I'm too young for growing up just yet
Ain't much I can promise you except to do the best I can
I'll be damned

I may be a real bad boy
But baby I'm a real good man

I may be a real bad boy
Awww, but baby I'm a real good man

Yes I am
