She left Oklahoma for California
Sun glasses on the brim of her hat
Smoke was porin from that old Cadillac
But she wasnt turnin back.

Just outside of Flagstaff
Motor blew on Coup De Ville
Just in time she saw a sign
There was a Texico waitin at the bottom of the hill and she said

Somebody must be prayin' for me
Somebody out there must be prayin' for me
Must be angels i can't see
Somebody must be prayin' for me

A boy about twenty climbed out of the truck all coverd in grease and dirt
She said,
