He was rough he was tough
And he drank his whiskey straight
And he would fight every nite
If he didnt get his way
She was kind she could find
All the good in everyone
And then one day she passed his way
He felt reborn in that morning sun
He saw her face
She called his name
And from that moment he knew hed never be the same

What you can find in the eyes of a woman
Is a reason to believe
Look deep inside the eyes of a woman
See the man you wanna be

Ive been down
Kicked around
The world had got the best of me
Out of rope
Little hope
Id ever get back on my feet
She took my hand
Said yes you can
One look at her and Im a brand new man

What you can find in the eyes of a woman
Is a reason to believe
Look deep inside the eyes of a woman
See the man you wanna be

Oh when I feel the need for inspiration
With just one look I find my salvation

What you can find in the eyes of a woman
Is a reason to believe
Look deep inside the eyes of a woman
