Say hello to nevermore
There' s no justice left worth fighting for
Drown your faith in disbelief
Base your morals on deceit and greed
Say goodbye to all you know
Hold your breath and let you conscience go
Put your faith in Jesus Cash
Close your eyes and let the system crash
A crown of razor wire...

If I lose my faith, it would be too late
Right back to Neverland
It would drag me down, suck me underground
Right back to Neverland

Sell me hope in little pills
Fastest way to break the human will
Barefoot walk on broken glass
Maybe something I can feel at last
A crown of razor wire...

If I lose my faith, it would be too late
Right back to Neverland
It would drag me down, suck me underground
Right back to Neverland

You don't understand
I'm down the hole again
Not enough... it's never enough

You can't comprehend
I'm back on the cross again
Never enough... it's never enough

If I lose my faith, it would be too late
Right back to Neverland
It would drag me down, suck me underground
Right back to Neverland

You don't understand
You don't understand

If I lose my faith, it would be too late
It would drag me down, suck me underground
It's not enough... it's never enough...
Right back to Neverland

Right back to Neverland!
You don't understand!
You don't understand!
You don't understand!
