the one that I want is gone and the two I never had are back but I'll give up everything with those two just to have the one that I had back because...

you don't know what you got until it's gone and with those two it's been way to long to try and respark any flames I ever had and it makes me sad to think that everything I wanted back then
is coming back to me now

3'z my lucky number but I think I'm goin' down I think I'm gonna' crumble with all these people around they were the one's that tore me up and threw me out but I'm a stronger person now I wont go that route because...

back then

back to me now...

you don't know what you got until it's gone
