There's all
I said there's all Hey baby girl, looking all grown up I wanna know where did you come from The heat begin to raise I warm up The club about to go on plane niggas speakers thumpin' Let's party hard,
and just move something
The vibe is right and it goes goes, goes on like you Such a beautiful crowd
levels on the ten
We're standing on chairs
with our hands up in the air
Girls getting real wild
Hair blowin' in the wind
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
If you're standing on them soft couch cushions Careful not to break your concentration Maintain sexy as she maintains balance Balance, if you fall, baby girl that won't be cute at all drink in the your left hand girlfriend in your right
Only comes dancing, holding on forget all night Long legs and a short skirt equals one hell of a night and now I'm talking about
Such a beautiful crowd
levels on the ten

with our hands up in the air
Hair blowin' in the wind
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
I got my eyes closed
Jumping up and down baby I'm teen
I got my eyes closed
Listen to the sounds so hypnotizing
And I bet before the night end you will find out that I'm not like him
Take her home, get it on the next morning Baby girl, give me that one more give me before you go
I got my eyes closed (baby I got my)
I got my eyes closed (baby I got my)
levels on the ten
with our hands up in the air
Girls getting real wild
Hair blowin' in the wind
We're standing on chair
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
with the hands up in the air
