Your woman's unfaithful, she's got a backdoor man
You've seen the signs and you understand
Don't get excited now, I know just what to do
I got the guns, ha-ha, I got the tools

Yes I'm the one they call the man
Any time at all, I'm just a hitman
I'll get the job done
No one will ever know it was you, it was you

They got their men promoted before it's time
His neck you break for one thin measly dime
Don't get excited, I got a plan
We'll take him down now, he'll be one dead man

Yes I'm the one they call the man
Any time at all, I'm just a hitman
I'll get the job done
No one will ever know it was you, it was you

Just don't pay me, then you will see
What a dead man really can do

You're at the cemetery feeling all alone
Just like a dog who done stole the bone
You start to cry or make one little sound
You'll be the next one, I'll put you in the ground

Yes I'm the one they call the man
Any time at all, I'm just a hitman
I'll get the job done
No one will ever know it was you, it was you
