Through trial and error
Since the beginning of the fight
Until the triumphant state
A mere mortal human Transformed with cosmic heat
Through the circle of fate
As the mighty merciless Metalian.
From the beginning of time, rulers of kingdoms
Have conquered, failed or forged their blood ahead
Many were great, kings or complete eccentric madmen.
Watch as the portal from the above world opens
A heart, soul, and mind of Metalian spirit enters Reincarnated into historical bodies of those Once admired or hated, preparing for what seems as the end.
His HERO soul shall rule the cosmic historical reincarNATION,
The "HERONATION"
