I'm gonna get mine
I am gonna get mine
I'm gonna get mine
I am gonna get mine

I look at you as you look down on me
And you are pleased by my misery
And you are hoping and praying that I will fail
And it's those reasons that I will prevail

And it's the little things that matter to me
It's the little things that I will see
It's been an uphill battle, all of my life
And if I didn't do wrong then I wouldn't know right

I'm gonna get mine
I am gonna get mine
I'm gonna get mine
I am gonna get mine

Always the underdog and never the one always the black sheep and never the good son a drifter, a dreamer, an outcast, a thief
I was questioned and cursed for all my beliefs

And I will walk a path that is mine
And I know now that I will be fine
I will not bow or get in line
'cause right now, right here, this is my time

I'm gonna get mine
I am gonna get mine
I'm gonna get mine
I am gonna get mine

Fuck you
