Hardly awake here. If that says enough.
Your love doesn't take here. Mine turns to dust.
If this means anything. It doesn't mean enough
I've done everything. And I'm still broken up
I try not to fight. I just try to understand.
You define what's important to me.
Hearts are just toys here. Mine's been played enough
Quiet just makes noise here. My volume's up.
If this means anything at all.
It doesn't close to mean enough.
Cause I've done everything
And I'm still broken up.
I try not to fight. I just try to understand.
You define what's important to me.
As far as I can tell, you're not happy at all.
