All I want is for you to be there, when I get home
Cause I miss you already, yeah I miss you.
My only request is that you'll be waiting, when I get home
Cause I miss you already, yeah I miss you.
All I want is for you to pick up everytime I call
Cause I miss you already, yeah I miss you.
All I ask is that you'll tell me, when something's wrong
Cause I miss you, already, yeah I miss you.
As you drive away, you burn me with your headlights
Leave me aflame
And with each goodnight, you hollow out my insides
Your arms, the blades.
