To be so thankful-so believe in the worse that holds us captive well I do want to be noticed to be surrounded by your sympathies Try to be someone that told you-- look at me now I'll never do that--hypocrite I had it so bad--look at me now I never did that I've had enough to go around,Cant let you do as I do to be so useful-but now Im used to I use against what I use to be for just answer,Why don't you answer,why don't you answer?
Try to be someone that told you--look at me now I'll never do that--hypocrite I had it so bad--look at me now I never did that I gave it up to let you down,I love to struggle and it's over,thank god it's over, Oh thank God I can't believe in this act but I act like I love it I am so wrong Im a grown man that makes me right I know who I am that makes me right to get along that makes me right as long as Im strong that makes me right Im a grown man that makes me right I know who I am that makes me right to go along that makes me right to be strong that makes me right I am so wrong I gave it up to let you down,I love to struggle And it's over thank god it's over--oh thank God
