Somebody
Somebody Put Something In My Drink
Somebody

Another night out on the street
Stopping for my usual seat
Bartender, Oh please

Vodka and tonic's my favorite drink
I don't like anything colored pink
That just stinks... it's not for me

It feels like...
Somebody...
Put Something...
Somebody put something in my drink
Somebody
Put Something...
Somebody...
Put something...

Blurred vision and dirty thoughts
Feel out of place, very distraught
Feel something coming on

Yeah, kick the jukebox, slam the floor
Drink, drink, drink, drink some more
I can't think
Hey! What's in this drink?

Somebody
Put something
Somebody
Put something in my drink
Somebody
Put something
Somebody
Put something in my drink
Somebody
Put something
Somebody

Put something in my drink
Somebody
Put something
Somebody
Put something in my drink
Somebody put something... in my drink... in my drink...
in
My drink... in my
Drink

So you think it's funny
A college prank
Goin' insane for something to drink
Feel a little dry

Oh, I couldn't care what you think of me
'Cause somebody put something in my drink
I can't think
Hey dude! Give me a drink

It feels like...
Somebody
Put something
Somebody
Put something in my drink
Somebody
Put something
Somebody
Put something in my drink
Somebody
Put something
Somebody
Put something in my drink
Somebody
Put something
Somebody
Put something in my drink

... something in my drink
