"Cocaine"

I've got cocaine in my brain and it feels just fine.

Almost the same, and that's the aim,
as when I'm with you.

So see me rolling by.

See me living the lie of the white lines,
but tonight I wish that your name was cocaine.

Been in this game caressing shame for too long time.

Forgot my name, but it's all the same cause I feel just fine.

See me rolling by.

See me throwing my dimes.

See me clinging to time with the white lines,
but tonight I wish that your name was cocaine.
