Hold my hand, rest assured
I won't fail you
Calm your heart, I am here
Right behind you

So wipe your tears, oh chosen one
Don't be scared, no need to run

You will see though it's dark
Your heart will blind the night
The two of us, we shall relent
When you shine your light

I shall comfort you so
Fear no evil, as you know:
I shall guide you, I will lead you

Fear no darkness, promised child
Fear no evil, promised child
Don't be scared, sweet promised child
Fear no darkness, no

Like a candle in the night
That's how I found you
That's how I know I will relent
You'll shine our way through.
So hold my hand, I rest assured
You won't fail me
Calm my heart, be my guide
Right behind me

And I shall comfort you so
Fear no evil, as you know:
I shall guide you, I will lead you

Fear no darkness, promised child
Fear no evil, promised child
Don't be scared, sweet promised child
Fear no darkness
