As I lay me down to sleep I can't see for a thousand dreams.

But Wendy, as I look into your faded eyes.

Wendy, I see something's wrong.

Yes Wendy, baby, something's wrong.

As we walk the long long streak, I can see you're a little weak.

But Wendy see me walking next to you, cause Wendy,

I've been there too.

Wendy, I've been there too.

As we talk until late at night I'll be right here until you're all right.

So Wendy can't you open up for me?

Wendy, baby can't you see when you wake up, baby,
it's just me.

Wendy.

Please, Wendy, baby, can't you see.

Wendy, Wendy, can't you see.

As I look into your dark and faded eyes.

Goodnight Wendy, goodnight.

Goodnight.
