Michael are you aware of the weakness that we share Always have
I am still so insecure
My shattered soul rots on floor and I can't see

I see us run through the streets
Oh so sweet memories
When I close my eyes
I still feel like I'm running, running, running, running

I see us run through the streets
Oh so sweet memories
When I close my eyes
I still feel like I'm
running, running, running, running

Everything is on repeat I stay restless in my seat
and I can't see

Give me strength to follow through
