This past to go
While I collapse
It's not a false alarm
The ashes settle in

I guess, we are the insane
as we ignore the mirror's truth

Should I join the feast
Should I acknowledge the leash
The future in captivity
I'm not who I'm supposed to be

Without even trying
I let this light explode

The bleeding
We deceive them
Fuel the lies
The feed
Idle reason
We should live by laws
Call the swarm
Feed them another false hope

Without even trying
Let this light explode
Without even trying
Find the exit sign and disappear

Without even trying
Let this light explode
Without even trying
Find the exit sign and disappear!
