I can see the other side
Keeping my head bowed down
I can see them all around
Dead staring eyes
Donning their Ascension robes
Waiting for the time
Shout down below
"I told you once before - I told you so!"

Got to build a tower
Need a better line of site
Climbing up the net
We're reaching for the sky
Got to keep on rising
Take a ray of burning light
Climbing up the net - through the sky

I can see the other side
Try to keep a hold
Take the roller-coaster ride
On some binary code
Speaking in a single tone
Think a single thought

Reaching out - we've been here before

Do I join in the race, keep my enemies near?
Am I forced to embrace this modern veneer?
Will I ever break free from this house of cards?
The truth is the victim - it was dead from the start!

Got to keep on rising
Take a ray of burning light
Got to keep on rising
We're climbing - We're climbing up the net
We're climbing - We're reaching for the sky
We're climbing - We're climbing up the net
We're climbing - We're reaching for the sky
We're climbing up the net
A ray of burning light
A better line of sight
We're reaching for the sky
