I never thought,
in this universe, that you existed
Simply give in,
I'd find you in some other life
Some other starlight uncharted moonlight
Dying to live the moment
(dying to live the moment)

Let me steal a moment from the time that we've been given Just to watch you sleeping, after making love I tenderly surrender while you're kissing me all over As relentless as a soldier on the run You've a scent of me, funny how the two can mingle I've the scent of you, hopefully for ever linger, I've a scent of you

I never thought
in this universe that you existed
Simply give in,
I'd find you in some other life
Some other starlight,
uncharted moonlight
Dying to live the moment
(dying to live the moment)

Let me pick a flower from inside your secret garden Just to let you know I treasure every leaf Use me as an anchor when a storm defies your ocean
I swear I'll let never you know defeat You were sent for me, infinitely complicated
I was sent for you,

funny how it sounds so easy,
I was sent for you

I never thought
Simply give in,
I'd find you in some other life
Some other starlight,
uncharted moonlight
La la la, la la la, la la la, la la la, la la la

I never thought,
you really came so unexpected But deep in my heart, maybe a million dreams ago I'll take whatever, found me together
Savouring every moment
I savour every moment (this universe)
yeah, in my universe.
