Forever
I could search for words
And nothing I would find
Forever
I could seek your truth
And nothing you'd reveal

So now I must leave while I can
While I'm still in one piece
Either way I will be lonely
And maybe you'll see what I meant
Maybe it's not much
Maybe... We'll see

Forever
I could await your call
And nothing I would hear
And never
Would I find peace
Oh no, with you

So now I must leave while I can
While I'm still in one piece
And either way I will be lonely
And maybe you'll see what I meant
Maybe it's not much
Maybe...

Maybe you'll see that you needn't be frightened
You can do better
You know better
Should I find courage to keep on pushing you
Maybe you'd open?

Who am I fooling?

Forever...
