One of guys in your life
You get a feeling
Someone's stealing your heart
And there's no healing

Wanna whisper and cry
Loudly and softly
Wanna live wanna die
My soul is hopeless

Never try to explain your heart emotions
You will never succeed to cross an ocean
Let me follow my dream
'Cause I can find it
(We're melting like snow)
Just don't deny it

Refrain (2 times):
Life is not enough
For our love to last forever
And for one more chance
You and I will pray together

Every time when you fly
Don't look for limit
When you tell me "Good bye"
Don't really mean it
Never try to look back
Over your shoulder
Keep your mind from (not quite sure: above? a bus? abyss?)
Don't let it fall down

Wanna jump in the sky
To get to know you
Through the rain, through the clouds
To really know you
Never try to explain your heart emotions
You will never succeed to cross an ocean
