I am a shadow of what I could be
I hide in silence, a mystery
I try to come out of my shell
But there's no one there to share my private hell

Please help me
To try to be me
To be free

Walls of Isolation are my home
Land of loneliness is where I roam
Someone help me cross this canyon
Someone give me strength
Strength of a thousand stallions

Please help me
To try to be me
To be free

You think I like this cage of mine
But honey it's not a cage of my design
You think I like being sealed in despair
I just need guidance, some love and care

So now you've heard my call for peace
If this my fate, this song is my release
If I am to go on as I am
Someone tell me why, 'cause I don't understand

Please help me
To try to be me
To be free

Please help me
To try to be me
To be free
