When its late at night and alls in bloom
And July ends and August rains over you
Shame, down on the heat
Its taken all your energy
Shame, down on the heat, and
Its taken all your energy

Well time can not tell you to return
Into the house the sun goes down but not for long
Oh this shame, down on the heat
And Its taken all your energy
Shame, down on the heat
For taking all your energy

Shame on the heat
Its taken all your energy
Shame down on the heat
Cos its taken all your energy
