I close my eyes to go to sleep
Intoxicating melodies are taking me
Over before it's that time
I feel my heart begin to race, trying to move to second place
The music gets louder, it wraps itself around

I try to move but I can't get free
Of this music, this melody
I try to move but I can't get free
Of this music, It's killing me

I close my eyes to go to sleep
Intoxicating melodies are taking me
Over before it's that time
I'm waiting to get awake to I realize all of this is fake I'm hoping that reason will wake me up because

I try to move but I can't get free
Of this music, this melody
I try to move but I can't get free
Of this music, It's killing me

Maybe someday I can get free
Of this melody
That wraps itself round my legs
I can't move
What do I have to do to stop it from chasing me in circles

I try to move but I can't get free
Of this music, this melody
I try to move but I can't get free
Of this music, It's killing me

Maybe someday I can get free
Of this melody
That wraps itself round my legs
I can't move
What do I have to do to stop it from chasing me in circles
In circles

Circles [6x]

Maybe someday I can get free
Of this melody
That wraps itself round my legs
I can't move
What do I have to do to stop it from chasing me in circles
In circles
