I don't know where I'm going when I leave this place
I just know that I'm leaving with a big smile on my face
It's hard to imagine this thing ever turning around
And that's why I'm leaving this town

A long time ago before I met you,
I was just happy being myself
And now I know it must be true
Never give your heart to someone else (someone else)

I don't know where I'm going when I leave this place
I just know I'm leaving with a big fat fucking smile on my face
It's hard to imagine this thing ever, ever turning around
And that's why I'm leaving this goddamned town

My entire life is in the back of my car
Half a tank I bet your? won't get me very far
You broke my heart so I broke your guitar
And now I guess you'll never be a star (be a star)

I'm not sentimental but I'm a little bit sad
Thinking about the good times that you and I both had
And I'm not worried about where we went wrong
I'd tell you all about it but it would ruin this song
