Calling, call every bond through a world
That's stalling my impression. obsession,
They'll always call,
Objection to the life that I live,
And the questions that I give
To a world that I'll never understand

That I'll never understand [3x]

Calling, call every bond through a world
That's stalling my impression. obsession,
They'll always call,
Objection to the life that I live,
