The wind on my face feels inviting
Like the story of some moving out
Of my mouth and my lips the receiver
Picks my voice up out of the crowd

And the operator then connects me
To a network of telephone lines
And my voice it goes over the wire
Like it has so many times

I'm trying my best to keep my voice steady
I've finally got something to say
To you
But I can't figure out what I wanna do

So I say goodbye
Simply goodbye to you
My friend
Till the end
Yeah goodbye
Simply goodbye to you
I never thought it would come to this
Your friendship is something I'll miss

And all this time
I never understood
How you could turn your back on me
But now I see
What I never understood
It's cause I've never turned my back on you

So I say goodbye
Simply goodbye to you
My friend
Till the end
Yeah goodbye
Simply goodbye
I never thought it would come to this
Your friendship is something I'll miss

And if you can just sit there and take it
I'll never look back

No I will never look back
Cause I know that we
Were much better than that
Yeah we were better than that

Goodbye, simply goodbye
To you
My friend
Till the end
Of time, the end of time
Goodbye, simply goodbye
To you
I never ever thought it would come to this
Your friendship is something I'll miss (I'll miss)
