"Setting Sun"

In the wildness of the sea
I'm looking out on a sunny day
You and I we've gone away
Looking out one last sunny day

And it is time for us to go
But my heart will stay aglow
Into the mind of memory
Baby, I'm glad
That it's part of you and me

You and I will go untamed
And the time will go
From this promised land
To hold it like it will always be
Still now in time is our sunny day

And it is our setting sun
Looking for rays
To find tomorrow's dawn
And any time we believe
That it's sun that is
Slipping into the sea
And it's our setting sun
Looking for rays
To go on and on
Any time that we believe
That the sun is
Slipping into the sea

Yes, we'll take our dreams today
And set them free to find their way
There will be eternity
And setting sun for you and me
