"Waves Of The World"

I said, baby
Baby, if you want my world
I'll take you to my heart, and girl
Fill you an ocean of love

Yes, you got me
Baby, if you offer me
Maybe, if you want me
To tempt you

Â'Cause I know
As I said it's so
I want to sail the seas
Maybe you can sail with me

Â'Cause love is deep and wide
An ocean and a sky
And what makes
The waves of the world

You, you want to see me wave
Yes, you want to be a bit weird
In your funny kind of way

And you are
Beauty in a robe
Love is now to know
That you'd rather be with me

As the music plays
Bathing in the sound and rays
Lapping in the curvy waves
Setting in the sun, Sundays

Love is in your eyes
And running into mine
Know these are
The waves of the world

You, Â'cause you want to sail away
Yes, you want to leave this maze

Even if we go alone

Then, you are
A Bermuda "mystery" rose
Love is now to know
That you'd rather sail with me

Unlike highways
Water doesn't know a way
Better off to give and sway
Better ought to ride the waves

We'll gather all our paths today
A compass and a map, okay
And we'll ride,
The waves of the world

I said, babe,
You are the waves in my world
I said, babe, these are
