Ran away from the one i loved last night,
It was wrong to leave but god it felt so right,
In the arms of a stranger it was easy to let go,
Yesterday it all seemed clear but now i don't know,

Oh i need you so but inside i'm torn apart,
I should let it go but inside i'm torn apart,
I felt the need and now i feel the shame,
Should of turned away now im the one to blame,
Torn apart,

Should I tell you lies or break your heart,
Mixed emotions tear my soul apart,
In the arms of a stranger it was easy to let go,
Yesterday it all seemed clear but now i don't know,

Torn apart

Oh i need you so but inside i'm torn apart,
I should let it go but inside i'm torn apart,
Oh i need you so but inside i'm torn apart,
I should let it go but inside i'm torn apart,
I felt the need and now i feel the shame,
Should of turned away now im the one to blame,
Torn apart...
