I don't know why I said

I still regret myself

If I could go back to the day one last time

I saw you in my dream and I was crying when I woke up

Cuz it's clear just like yesterday

I wash my face and clean my room

Rest in my sofa

Think about the time we spent with

I remember it like yesterday

Everytime I notice that it's over

It happened again and then I hate myself

Could tell you honestly and I can tell you directly
