Sorry. Sorry.
I know sometimes I act shitty.
Sorry sorry
Can i make it good again?

Never has a more pathetic creature hung his drunken head,
And say I'm sorry more convincing.
Never has a more pathetic creature been tormented such as this
I'm piss drunk broke down stupid.

And I hang my head out the window
??and wash off all the spit-up off my face??
I wonder if I'd wind up on your pillow
Why's my head feel this way?

Broke down stupid

Right from my stomach comes,
The worst of what I have become.
My own ?cum? turns against me
I can taste it.
Right up from the pits of hell,
A demon with a stinging tail,
Sits on my shoulder giving console!

And I shame my lips on the right words
The telephone is a heaven in my hand?
Wait for strength to steady these nerves
Make my body well again
