So let's pretend your words are true.
If you believe them i will too.
I'll hold them down and suffocate the true meanings.
Would you lie just to prove a point,
And would you lie about lies you've told.
You're so pretty when i dress you in your fables.
They hold you together.
Flash ram. flip the switch burn me again.
Spark me out.
I'll solo out my innocence and use it as my one defense.
Pretend it is the only thing i know.
It holds me together.
Flash ram. flip the switch burn me again.
Flash ram. go back out the way you got inside.
Flash ram. flip the switch burn me again.
Flash ram. go back out the way you got inside.
Just when you thought you knew me well.
Maybe you'll have a friend in hell.
You're not the only judas here. what a gas!
Who do you think you're dealing with.
I only regret the hypocrite.
Couldn't you see me lying too. what a gas! spark you out.
