Someday soon you will sink into the ocean
Weighted down without a shame in tough guy chains
I just hope I'm somewhere I can see you sinking
Watch you as you drop beneath the waves

You are my sunshine turned to cloudy sky...sky

I wonder as you're rotting at the bottom of the sea
Who'll find that will cater to your wishes?
Maybe you can try that smile on a lonely manta ray
I bet you can even charm the fishes

You are my sunshine turned to cloudy sky...sky

I'm gonna miss the way you laugh,
Even when my jokes ain't funny,
And the way you say,
Never say never
And your promises
Never say never say...

And I just hope I'm somewhere I can see you sinking...
See you sinking...
See you sinking...
See you sinking...
Sinker
Sinker
Sinker
