Lips are numb
From my confession
Now's the time, the time is now to stare it down
Balanced on this waterfall
I'm everyone who's ever done you any wrong

Now's the time, the time is now,
Now's the time, the time is now...

And I wait for the right moment
Over and over it slips bye
Laugh, a nervous laugh
Laugh as that agitation drops away

Now's the time, the time is now
Now's the time to stare it down
I'll take you to where the sand/sin runs to the sea

I have found a waterfall in myself,
The water falls to the sea to be forgot
I have hurt the one I love

Now's the time, the time is now
Now's the time, the time is now
Now's the time to stare it down
Now's the time to stare it down
Now's the time, the time is now...

I have found a waterfall in myself,
The water falls to the sea to be forgot
I have hurt the one I love
...One I Love!
