A bird's eye view looking down upon you.

A thought is creeping upstairs too.

Accross this world, encounters we will find.

Stop and take the time to level and get gear.

But now you're gone,

And I'm left here.

I'm flying solo tonight.

I'm fighting a war behind my eyes.

You didn't try me on for size.

This ice is thin and its cold in my life.

Onion knight, I am your master.

Double cast kills you faster.

And now that you're gone,

A ronan shall not fear.
