When I took you back
I thought you'd only up and run
But you're still here, I know

And when I took you back
I thought you'd only up and run
But you're still here, you're still here

And now everything goes my way
And now everything goes my way
It feels so good to have you back my love
I'm in love again...
Love, I'm in love again...

Why give it up on you,
You shot a hole in my heart straight through
When you pushed me aside,
three weeks I cried

But now you've got me back,
You know I'll never up and run
Yeah I'll stay in here, I stay right here

And now everything goes my way
And now everything goes my way
It feels so good to have you back my love
I'm in love again...
Love, I'm in love again...
Love, I'm in love again...
Love, I'm in love again...
