"Square Your Hat"

She was my pure heart, my pure soul,
Everything to me and a whole lot more,
Until the night that she went out walking out that door.
"I met someone," she said. "I never meant to but I did."
The news hit me like a bullet in my chest.
Yeah I got mad, things got smashed,
I found a bottle and I got trashed,
My father dropped in and he poured himself a glass.
I confessed to him my dark thoughts,
I swear somebody's gonna get shot"
He said that's just the whiskey talk,

He said, "Square your hat son,
What's done is done,
You can't do anything now.
You're far too young to be livin' on the run,
So why don't you just settle down?
There's no gettin' over a woman like that,
So square your hat son, what's done is done."

A week and a half I'm still throwin' them back,
I can't forget the sound of her laugh.
I swear I'm gonna kill that man
Ya I'm crazy drunk with a loaded gun
And you ain't so hard to find in this town.
I look in the mirror before I head down,

And said "Square your hat son,
What's done is done,
You can't do anything now.
You're far too young to be livin' on the run,
So why don't you just settle down?
There's no gettin' over a woman like that,
So square your hat son, what's done is done.
What's done is done. What's done is done."

She's gone. She's gone.
And I can't shake this feeling in my bones.
She's gone. And I cannot leave hell enough alone.
Anything but that

Square your hat son
What's done is done,
You can't do anything now.
You're far too young to be livin' on the run,
So why don't you just settle down?
There's no gettin' over a woman like that,
So square your hat son, what's done is done.

Square your hat son.
Square your hat son.
There's no getting over a woman like that,
Square your hat, what's done is done.
