I let another one get away
She said she's gone for good
But that's all old hat now
I always thought she would

To tell you the truth
I'm prepared to fall apart
It's just like deja vu
I know it all by heart

It ain't no thang, I already know how it feels
Same ol' pain, a different deal
So if it looks like rain, I'm gonna let it rain
'Cause I know , it ain't no thang

Well I tried the crying thang
But it only made it hurt
That silly drinkin' thang
Only made it worse

Girls are gonna come
And girls are gonna go
The only thang I'm sure of
The only thang I know

It ain't no thang, I already know how it feels
Same ol' pain, a different deal
So if it looks like rain, I'm gonna let it rain
'Cause I know , it ain't no thang

It ain't no thang, I already know how it feels
Same ol' pain, a different deal
So if it looks like rain, I'm gonna let it rain
'Cause I know , it ain't no thang
