theres a new wind blowin like i've never known im breathing deeper than ive ever done and it sure feels good...to finally feel the way i do i wanna love somebody, love somebody like you im lettin go of all my lonely yesterdays ive forgiven myself for the mistakes ive made now theres just one thing the only thing i wanna do. i wanna love somebody, somebody like you

(chorus)
i wanna feel the sunshine shining down on me and you when you put your arms around me, you let me know theres nothing in this world i cant do i used to run in circles goin nowhere fast id take one step forward, end up two steps back i couldnt walk a straight line....even if i wanted to i wanna love somebody, love somebody like you (whoa here we go now)

musical interlude

(chorus)
sometimes its hard for me to understand but youre teaching me to be a better man i dont wanna take this life granted like i used to do (nooo)
i wanna love somebody, love somebody like you im ready to love somebody, love somebody like you i wanna love somebody, love somebody like youuu!!!
