(Chorus)

Its a little too late, Im a little too gone, a little too tired
of this hanging on

So I'm letting go while I'm still strong enough too,
Got a little to sad, Im a little to blue
Its a little too bad you were too good to be true
Im big time over you baby, its a little too late.

No, I dont want to talk about what we can do about us anymore

All that time we would be wasting is the time it takes to walk right out that door

Yeah you talk about water under the bridge, you should know by now girl, thats all this is.

(Chorus)

Its a little too late, Im a little too gone, a little too tired
of this hanging on

So I'm letting go while I'm still strong enough too
Got a little to sad, Im a little to blue
Its a little too bad you were too good to be true
IM big time over you baby, its a little to late.

There was a time this heart of mine would take you back every time dont you know?

Thats been two packs of cigarettes, a sleepless night, a nervous wreck, a day ago,

You aint got no business coming around, Im closing up shop, shutting us down

(Chorus)

Its a little too late, Im a little too gone, a little too tired
of this hanging on

So Im letting go while I'm still strong enough too
Got a little too sad, Im a little to blue
Its a little too bad you were too good to be true
Im big time over you baby, its a little too late.

I'm big time over you baby...its a little to late.
