I fell asleep around 2 am it's almost noon
And now my mom is bangin' down the door of my room She said my pager's bouncin' and buzzin' up off the floor
And now my friends are jumpin' and shouting outside our door
I growled at her and pulled the covers up over my head She laughed and slammed a pillow on my face and shook my bed
She said I might just wanna peek out the window
Sat up and squinted, took a peek out the window

It snowed it snowed it snowed, today let's go out and play
It snowed it snowed it snowed, today

Hallelujah, snow angels rejoice
Let your wings unveil and lift your voice

I grabbed my toboggan and boots and I was out the door
I didn't know that I was walking right into a war Sliding down that icy walk feelin' chill like outer space Turned in time to catch a snowball right upside my face
My feet they slipped and suddenly I was up in the air
I hit the ground, laughter came from everywhere
I jumped right up and joined the making of this joyful sound
And then we all fell back and waved our arms and legs around

It snowed it snowed it snowed, today let's go out and
play
It snowed it snowed it snowed, today

Hallelujah, snow angels rejoice
Let your wings unveil and lift your voice

All creation lift Your praise,
Christ is born, it's Christmas day

It snowed it snowed it snowed, today
It snowed it snowed it snowed, today

Hallelujah, snow angels rejoice
Let your wings unveil and lift your voice [x2]

All creation lift Your praise,
Christ is born, it's Christmas day
