Don't need road maps to tell me where to go
Don't need postcards from people I should know
Don't need lawyers to plead insanity
Take 'em all away, they don't mean a thing to me

Cause I don't need nothing, I don't need anyone
But you can find me at the river, where the still waters
run

Don't need memories of lovers I have lost
Don't want pleasure, cause I can't afford the cost
Don't want lessons that I got no chance to learn Take me to the river, I got a bridge I gotta burn

Cause I don't need nothing, I don't need anyone
But you can find me at the river, where the still waters
run

Don't ask questions that I got no right to know Don't ask favours from people I still owe Don't ask why it's got to be this way
Cause in this great big ocean, I'm the original castway

Cause I don't need nothing, I don't need anyone
Not anywhere anyway anyhow
But you can find me at the river, where the still waters
run
Where the still waters run
