This is my promise to you: it won't stop until i'm through.
The whole world i will kill to justify my thrill.
The light gave you the will i love to take.

You're the voice that draws me near.
You're the reason i am here.
I would give my life for you, if you would do the same thing too.
Unless one plus one equals one.
Unless one plus one equals one.

Then i'll lie to you until the end.
I'll get inside your head and fool the whole world.
It's such an easy thing.
'cause pain is my promise for you.
I won't stop until i have you.
Have you.
Am you.

I promise that i'll be with you until the end.
A message i've come to send, to the whole world:
There's gonna be so much pain.
There's never been, there'll never be,
There's gonna be,
There's gonna be so much pain.
Crucify. he's a lie. i'm not a lie, i'll never die.
Can you hear me? i'm not a lie.
Can you see the god in me? can you hear me? i'm not a lie.
I'm not a lie. i'll never die, i'll never die.
But death is my promise for you.
The hell won't stop when i judge you, judge you.
The whole world i will kill,
Satan's on a trigger pill.
Trigger pill.
